

Rob Sherwood BMus (Hons)

Rob is a guitarist, bass player and singer and has been working as a solo performer and within a variety of different ensembles from a young age. After achieving his Grade 8 Guitar at 14, he became a member of the National Youth Jazz Orchestra of Wales, of which he was a member for 5 years.

In 2013, Robert graduated from London City University with First Class honours in Music, where he specialised in musical performance and recording techniques. He works at Shabbey Road Studios, Caerphilly as well as teaching for Gwent Music Service.

Rob is an active performer and a much sought after guitarist working with bands, duos and pit orchestras. He is extremely versatile and is well versed in a wide range of music from classical through to jazz, rock and pop.

As well as performing regularly, Rob also writes and arranges music for a wide range of groups. He aims to bring all his musical skills to his recording studio and teaching work, passing on his experience to motivate and inspire his pupils and give them a link and insight in to the profession.
