

Iolo Edwards

Iolo, originally from Anglesey in North Wales, started playing Drums and Percussion at the age of 13. He studied Percussion and Piano at the Junior Royal Northern College of Music. During his time at JRNCM he performed with the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain and the Colditz Chamber Orchestra before starting his degree at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama studying under Patrick King, Steve Barnard, Owen Gunnel, Henry Baldwin and Mathew French. Iolo additionally has a teaching position with Cardiff High School's Orchestra.

He is one member of Quartet19 - a percussion quartet who regally perform all over the UK

He has performed all over the world including recent tours to China, Poland and Germany.